The Search Begins ...

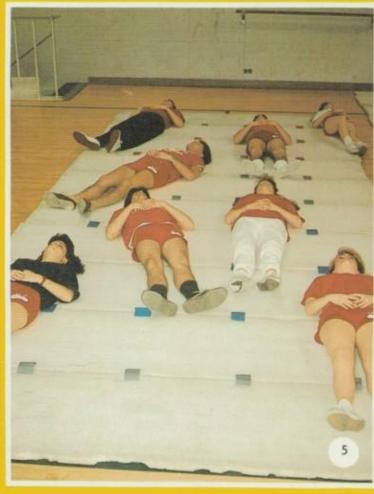

The search begins ... the year, nineteen hundred and eighty-five; the place, Homewood-Flossmoor High School. Here we begin our odyssey in search of the solution to the case: "The Adventure of the Lost Student." Our search for clues will take us through the various aspects of life at H-F. We will encounter football and baseball, soccer and track, Homecoming and Turnabout. Other clues will surface through basketball and field hockey games, clubs and special activities. Thus we begin our quest for a solution to "The Adventure of the Lost Student."

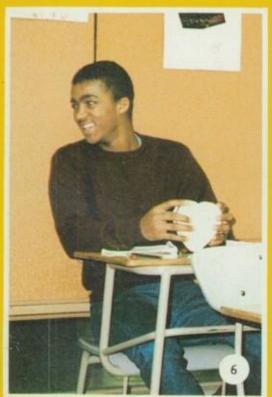

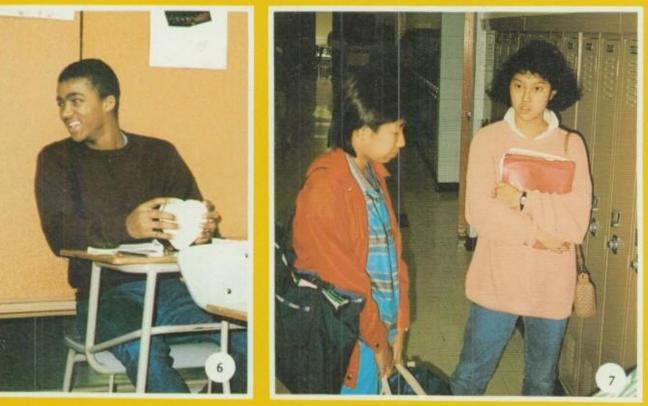

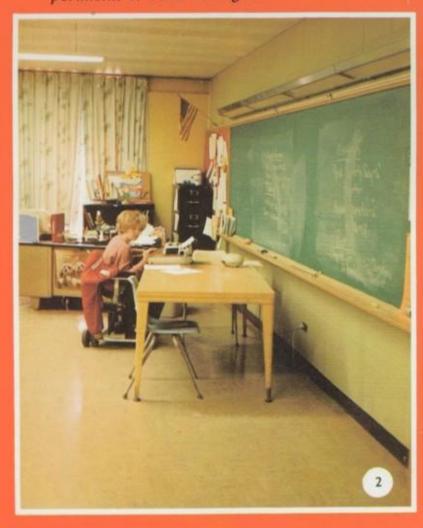

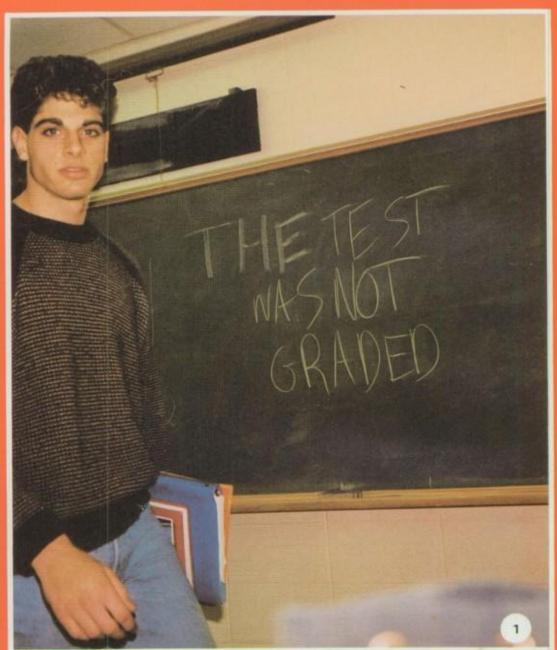

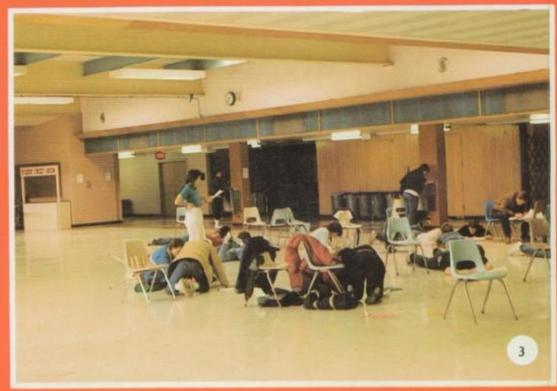

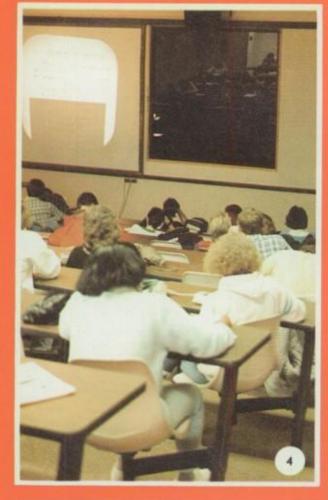

I. Keith Carroll sells candy bars for plants and animals class. 2. Lisa Mostowfi strolls to her next class. 3. After school. Regina Rangel and her friend go to basketball practice. 4. Scott Feeney wakes up after a nap on his way to school. 5. Yoga class tries to rest. 6. Mike Darby smiles because he just received a valentine. 7. Two freshman discuss their homework.

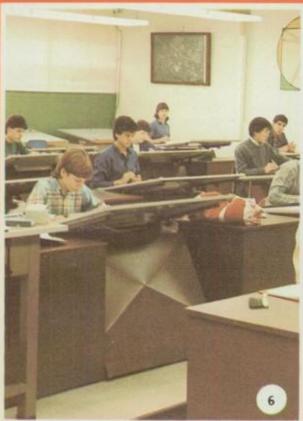

Exhibit A is Homewood-Flossmoor High School in Flossmoor, Illinois. It consists of two buildings with many classrooms. In these classrooms much of the action takes place. These H-F students take a variety of classes. Choices range from typing to acting, from algebra to outdoor adventure, and from plants and animals to drafting. During their day, students can make breakfast, conduct a chemistry experiment, or build an engine.

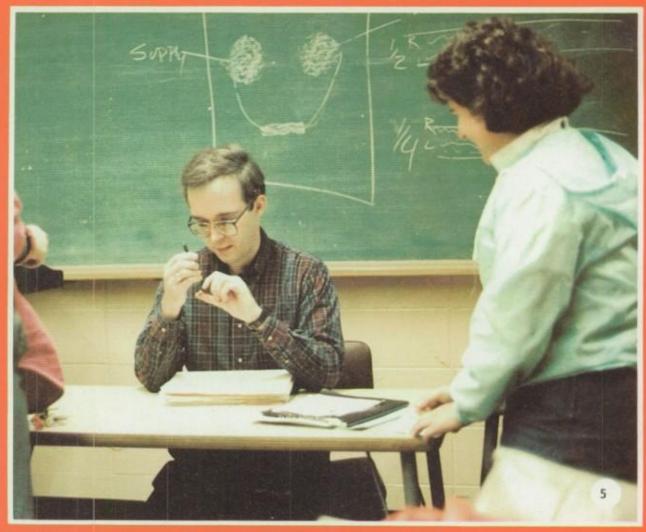

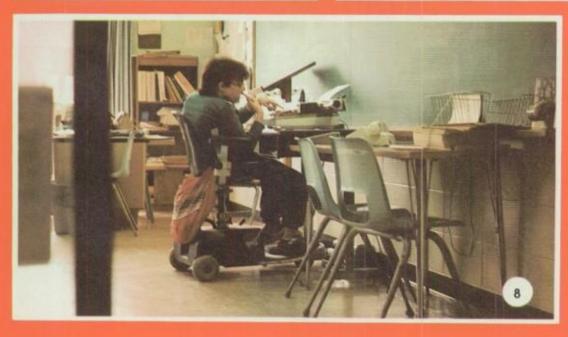

I. Andy Stone is relieved that his Algebra III test has not yet been graded. 2. Kim Lavin works on her typewriter alone. 3. An outdoor adventure class takes a test. 4. A Western Civ. class takes notes during a lecture in large group. 5. Mr. Comstock helps a student. 6. Drafting is one of the exciting classes offered at H-F. 7. A typing class learns to type a business letter. 8. Andy Berner works hard on her homework.

The suspects in the case are very upto-date in the latest fashion, music, and movie trends. They are fashionable from head to toe. Common sights around H-F are Reebok gym shoes and Guess jeans. Old standbys such as Levi jean jackets and college sweatshirts are also very popular. Students tell time according to their Swatches. Many new groups are making their way onto the Walkmans and compact disc players as well as radios and videos. Some of these performers are INXS, Whitney Houston, and O.M.D. More established groups and singers listened to are Phil Collins, Bruce Springsteen, the Rolling Stones and Talking Heads. Some of the hottest movie choices of the year are Pretty in Pink, Lucas (starring some of our own H-F students), Down and Out in Beverly Hills, and Nightmare on Elm Street II.

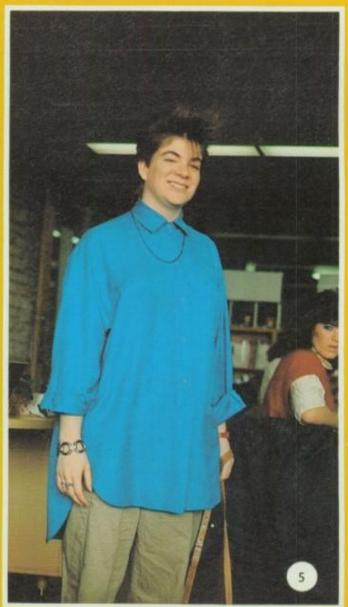

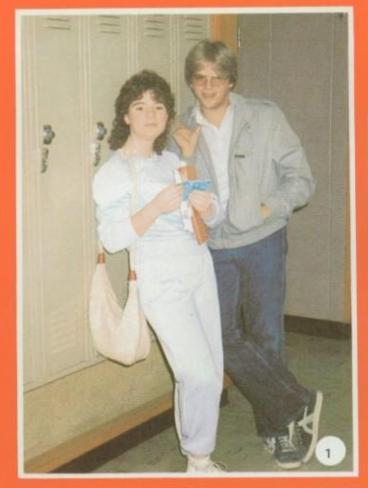

I. Reeboks took students from the school halls to gym class. 2. People wore sunglasses everywhere, all the time this year. 3. Ardis Miller and Cindy Clegg show they are in fashion by wearing stirrup pants. 4. After the Washington trip there were Virginia sweatshirts everywhere. 5. Rae Ann Wright shows off the look of the oversize shirt. 6. Swatches were the rage in 1986.

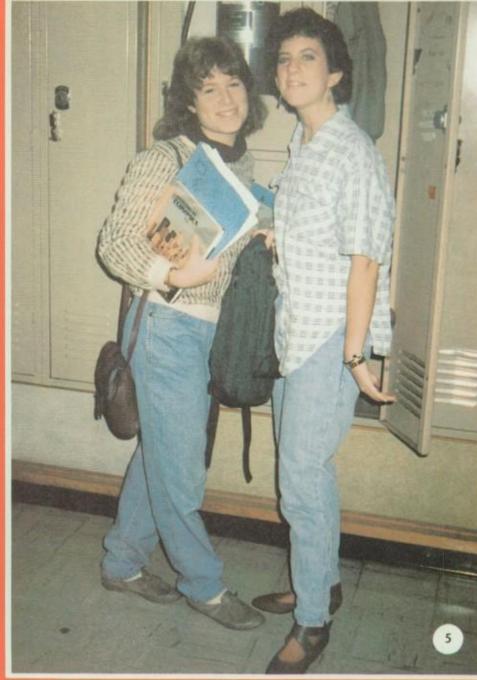

This case shows the great deal of importance placed on friendship by the students at H-F. These friends share good times and bad times. There are always lots of good times consisting of going out to eat, going to the movies, joining clubs together, and just hanging around. Friends at H-F talk on the phone, do homework, go to parties, travel, and spend many weekends together. These same friends also double date and share secrets. To the suspects in this case, friendship is one of the most important parts of their lives.

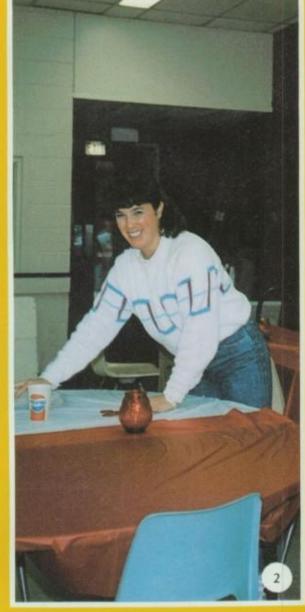

I. Chris Petrich and Jeff Fasel share secrets about Homecoming. 2. Carrie Canalia and Heather Nash have lots of good times together. 3. A group of Homecoming workers wait for the four-thirty bus together. 4. Kris Hoffschmidt, Jenny Harrell, and Cindy Pierce talk about contest play. 5. Jodi Adler and Dina Lawson get ready to go home. 6. Mark Benzaquen and Janelle Carrier take a break during gym.

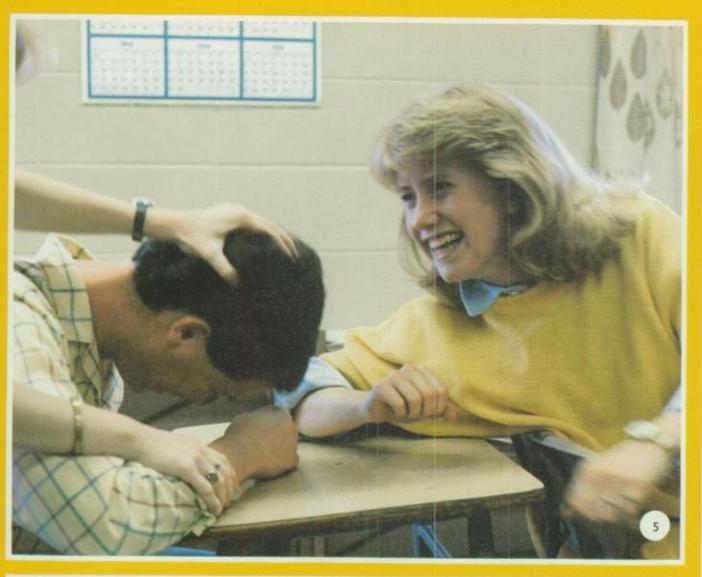

The suspects involved in this case are extremely active. They play sports on teams and intra-murals. They go to dances and parties on weekends. Many of the suspects are active in clubs and organizations. Working is also a common trait among this group. When they're not doing homework or talking on the phone, they love to shop and eat. They can usually be found hanging around McDonald's, Burger King, Aurelio's or Taco Bell. As a result of their active life-styles the suspects in this case are often tired. Occasionally they even fall asleep in class!

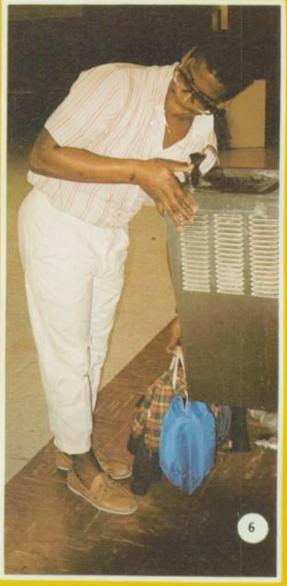

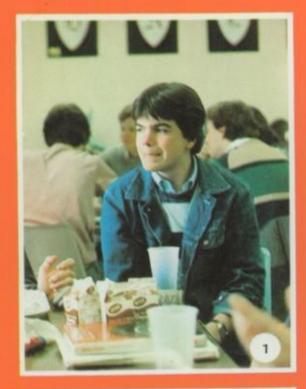

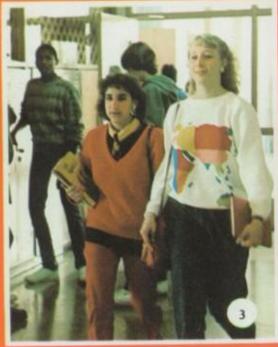

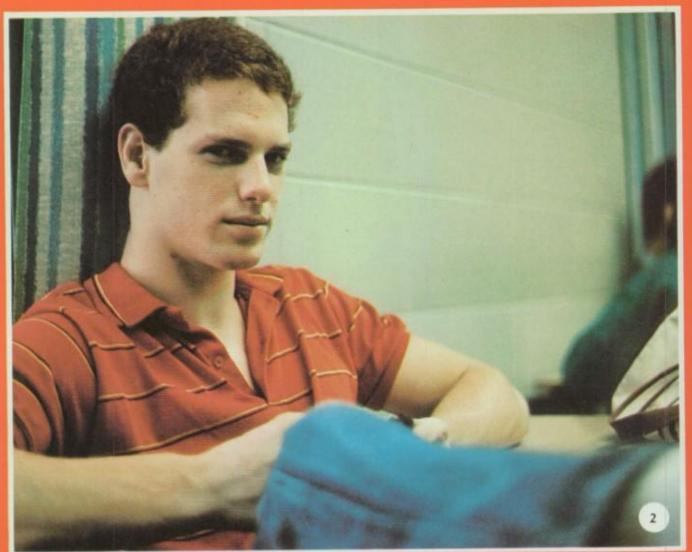

I. Excitement runs high at the Homecoming assembly run by the senior class. 2. Kristen Hanacek cleans up after one of the special chicken lunches for the senior class. 3. Tom Truax gives a speech in Spanish. 4. Kesh Pallai and his date get into the Hawaiian spirit at Homecoming. 5. Amy Augustus and Alan Berlin clown around on Econ. 6. Richard Storey quenches his thirst between classes. 7. Malcolm McCurry shows one of the symptoms of "senioritis."

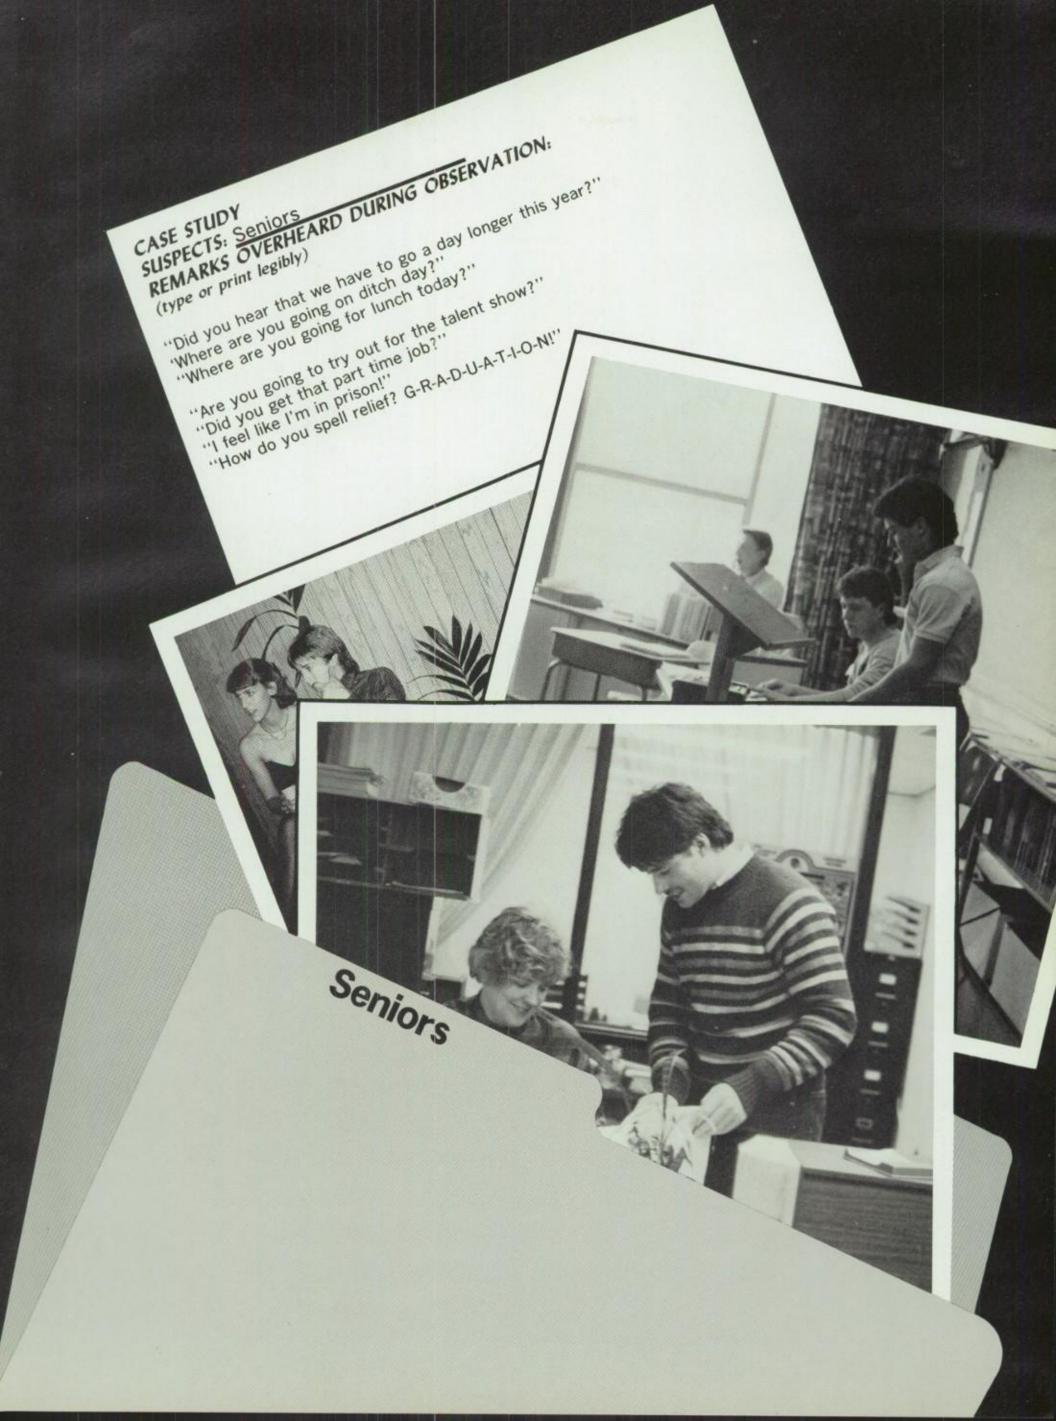

I. Randy Peach considers eating his school lunch. 2. Andy Bransky gives his "Stud" look. 3. Jodi Pressendo and Chrissy Baffes rush to make the eight-thirty bell. 4. A bunch of friends make plans for the weekend.

Administration

Dr. Edward Rachford taught geography for one year (1963-1964), and was a counselor for two years (1965-1966). He was the Assistant to the Superintendent from 1966-1970. Also during this time, he was acting Department Chairman of Social Sciences. Dr. Rachford was the Assistant Superintendent in 1971, until his appointment as Superintendent in 1972.

"H-F continues to provide a strong academic basis and a variety of activities for all students. I'm happy to be a part of the change and the growth."

Mr. Charles Smith has been principal at H-F for 14 years. He is now on the IHSA Board (1977-1986), and is serving as President of IHSA (1984-1986).

"During my 14 years at H-F, I have seen a growing effort, on behalf of students and staff, to combine their energies to make H-F an excellent High School. I have observed an increase in pride and respect for one another.

Mr. Donald Stoegbauer has been the Business Manager for II years since his start at H-F in 1975.

"I find the business aspect of Education exciting, challenging, and everchanging. It's the largest industry in the nation.

Student Government Officers

1985-86 was an exciting year for Student Government as Don Lee entered his second year as president, after returning from a summer leadership workshop at the University of Illinois, Urbana. Among the activities offered to students were dances after basketball games, movies after school, and Change-of-Pace day, all which were organized by Karin Molander. In addition, Student Government hosted Be Nice to Lunch Ladies and Maintenance Men Day. Mike Morton spearheaded the painting of a mural in G-Cafeteria depicting the dangers of drunk driving. Individual members of Student Government went on several exchanges with other high schools and Kal Lwanga, Christal Archibald, Jennie Dietrich, and Kay Asaki attended the state convention of the Illinois Association of Student Councils. Finally, Student Government amended its own constitution, abolishing the offices of Vice-President of Activities and Policy, and replacing them with Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer.

Diversified Occupations is a cooperative education program for students who desire specific training for a "skilled" occupation in industrial or technical fire cadet, health, child care, and foodservice occupations. Vocational (on-the-job) training is provided in many areas not usually covered in the regular curriculum, in cooperation with the local, industrial and business community. Students participate in educational, leadership and social activities. Students are involved in the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America to gain knowledge from others in their field of interest.

The Secondary Work Experience Program is a cooperative undertaking in which Homewood-Flossmor High School and local business and industry work together in providing vocational training. When a student enters the S.W.E.P. class, he begins an educational experience which may prove to be a significant milestone in the preparation of his life's work.

The S.W.E.P. program may help make other high school courses more interesting and meaningful. (A student will have a chance to apply what he has learned in such fields as mathematics, science, art, business education, English, industrial arts, home economics — depending upon the occupation chosen into a real life situation.) The S.W.E.P. program will fit school training and work experience together into an organized program by providing suprervised work experience on the job, and an opportunity to study related information in school.

Winners of league and playoff championships are awarded prizes.

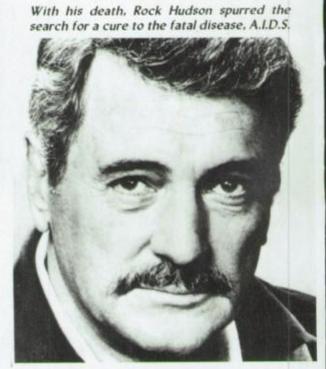

Year-In-Review Year-In-Review Year-In- Review

The news this year covered events ranging from the disaster of the space shuttle, Challenger, to the removal of President Reagan's cancerous tumor. Trouble in the Mid-East continued with several car bombings and a Trans World Airline jet was hijacked in Athens, Greece by Sheite terrorists, who released 39 hostages later. The Italin cruise liner, Achille Lauro, was also hijacked and one parapalegic, Henry Klinghoffer, was murdered. However, American jets intercepted the boat hijackers as they were flown out of Egypt.

A giant step backwards? Seven members of the space shuttle, Challenger, including Christa McAuliffe (teacher) died in the explosion.

Fashion was more body conscious - shaplier silhouettes, tight tube skirts and stirrup pants. Paisley prints were found in everything from ties and oversized shirts to Swatch watches. Among the many celebrities to highlight this year's sporting events was Jim McMahon, QB for the Chicago Bears that beat the New England Patriots 44 to 0 in Superbowl XX. Coach Mike Ditka was also in the news for his open dislike of defensive coordinator. Buddy Ryan.

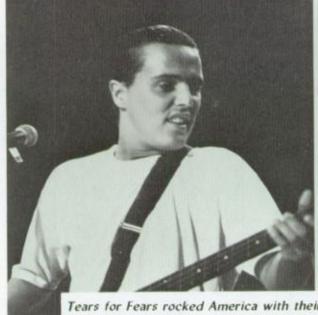

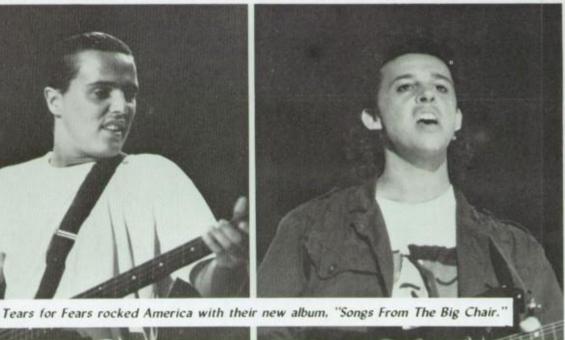

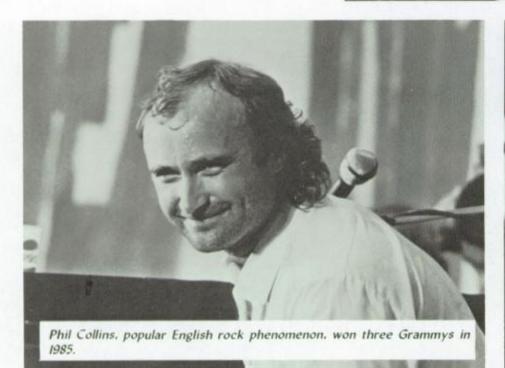

Year-In-Review Year-In-Review Year-In-Review

Bruce Springsteen was the undisputed king of rock and roll this year. Newcomers, Whitney Houston, O.M.D. (Orchestral Maneuvers in the Dark) and A-Ha hit the radio waves along with legendary rockers, Aretha Franklin, The Hooters, and Tina Turner. Also, Lionel Richie's song, "Say You, Say Me" was named song of the year. Another important event, started by Bob Geldoff, was Band-Aid, a group of English performers that put on a non-profit concert that raised funds for the starving Ethiopians. Band-Aid inspired Americans musicians to create Live-Aid (for Ethiopians) and Farm-Aid (for American Farmers).

Behind The Scenes .

The crews that work behind the scenes make an important contribution to theatre productions. The students on these crews build sets, paint scenery and work the lighting and sound equipment. They help with make-up, costumes and props. These crews put in many hours even before the play goes on stage, and without their determination and dedication the show would not go on.

Summer Play Sleeping Beauty

Sleeping Beauty delighted 3 full audiences in the summer of 1985. Over 53 students were involved in the cast. The story was filled with effective acting, dance, musical interludes and also audience participation.

The leads included Stacie Miller, Brendan Parades, Kirsten Albecht, Doug Lambert, Keith Gavigan, Kara Kowert, Pat Scott, Rachel Anderson, Paul Easton, Tina Amador, Jim Tozzi and Leigh Ann Ruyle, assistant director.

The production was directed by Tom Sweeney; technical director, Megan Tipton; lighting designer, Matt Sarantakos; and poster design by Lorelei Jones. In addition, many parents and volunteers helped to make the show a success.

I. Brendan Parades (King), Kirsten Albrect (Queen), Beth Mitchell (kneeling in prayer) and Paul Easton (Monk) glance at the new born child. 2. Stacie Miller (Sleeping Beauty) explains to Rachel Anderson (Evil Godmother) her hope for a happy birthday celebration. 3. Rachel Anderson places a curse on the infant child. 4. Surrounded by children, Stacie Miller recognizes the young prince. Keith Gavigan (Simple). 5. Stacie Miller is tempted by Pat Scott (Old Wicked Lady)

The Great Cross-Country Race

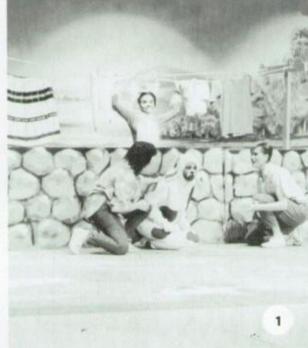

Children's Play

The Great Cross-Country Race, this year's children's play, was a portrayal of the classic tale of the tortoise and the hare. A cast of nineteen students presented the show on Saturday, December 14, for two performances. As the characters raced through the auditorium, audience members, young and old, cheered on their favorite contestant. Finally, the adage, "slow, but steady, wins the race," prevailed.

1. Fleet hangs on the laundry line as Jackie, Basket, and Robin crawl on the floor. 2. Bruno steps out to do a little "bird watching." 3. George and Maude's private talk has been interrupted by Basket, Fleet, and Brush. 4. Mr. Sett, Brush, Torto, and Mrs. Warren warm up for the race. 5. George and Maude sit in the park and have a romantic conversation. 6. Fleet daydreams about winning the race. 7. Basket asks the audience where the hare went.

The curtain rose on the 1985-86 theater season as H-F's first fall musical premiered with Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pirates of Penzance." The show was enthusiastically received by audiences who laughed and applauded as the energetic Pirates, witless wards, cowardly cops and a madcap Modern Major-General performed under the eyes of a Queen Victoria likeness.

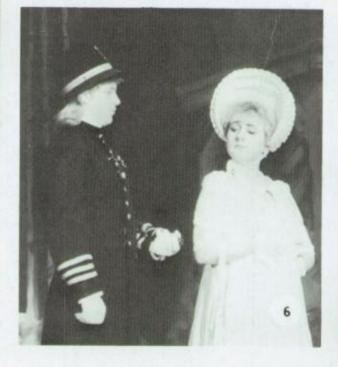

I. With Ruth by his side, Frederic takes time out to think. 2. The Sergeant of Police assembles his men. 3. Watch out Frederic, Ruth has a gun! 4. Mabel takes off with Frederic and the Major-General following her. 5. Why is Major-General Stanley "singing in the rain?" 6. The Sergeant of Police brought Mabel some disturbing news. 7. The pirates display their joy, on stage, by dancing.

Fall Musical

I. Mabel sings of her love for Frederic. 2. Major-General Stanley searches for his beloved daughters in the middle of the night. 3. Edith and Kate run to their father for protection from the pirates. 4. The policemen perform and dance together. 5. The pirate king and Ruth sing about their futures. 6. Ruth and Frederic share an intimate moment. 7. The Major-General gives his permission of marriage to all 13 of his daughters and their pirate companions.

Seven Against Thebes

This production of "Seven Against Thebes" has been modernized in that the time of the play has been moved to the modern era someplace in the Middle East. The play retained the traditional elements of Greek tragedy including music, dancing, and a chorus of voices to explain the plot. H-F took First in state with their version of Aeschylus' tragic play.

I. David Blazevich and Julie Kautz perform as Etokles and The Korphaios. 2. The soldiers carry one of their dead men out for mourning. 3. Joe Taylor portrays a bodyguard in "Seven Against Thebes." 4. The Women of Thebes are weeping for their dead soldiers. 5. Joe Taylor and David Blazevich argue about the war. 6. The soldiers hold their prisoner at gun-point. 7. Julie Kautz tries to comfort the Women of Thebes. 8. David Blazevich is in a state of rage!!!

Spring Play

This year's Spring Play "Our Town," was performed on May 9th and lOth. "Our Town" is a story of a New England town at the turn of the century and a high school boy and girl who fall in love and get married. The cast includes: Brendon Paredes, Casey McDonough, Scott Gavigan, Janet Romac, Jill Smith, Todd Lauterbach, Julie Kautz, Paul Easton, Jim Tozzi, Linda Husich, Denise Schiavone, Erica Jablon, Mike Morton, Brad Armistead, Bob Wathier, Neil Kirby, Michelle Myers, Steve Katzen, Mark French, Rachel Anderson, and Flo Speakman.

Washington Trip

This years Washington trip was enjoyed by 150 students and 8 teachers, who acted as chaperones. The fun involved touring the sights of: the Lincoln Memorial, the Capital Building, the FBI Headquarters, the Library of Congress, and Fords Theater. There was also an endless amount of food and excitement. Those who went will always think of it as a memorable experience.

Eastern College Trip

A group of twenty-one students and three chaperones made the annual trip for the Eastern College trip. This trip took place over Spring Break. The group visited eight universities. Students met with admissions officers and students on the campus conducted tours. In several instances, H-F graduates were the tour guides. Additionally, H-F students had the opportunity to be lodged overnight at Harvard, Dartmouth, Yale, and Princeton. They stayed with college students.

Spanish Trip To Peru

This year the Spanish Club, chaperoned by Judy Marron and Terri Comerford, visited Peru. The group left on March 28, 1986 and arrived back in the U.S. on April 6, 1986. Nineteen students and the two chaperones visited Lima, Ica, Nazca, Srequipa, Cuzco, Machu Picchu, and the Ballestas Islands. They spent an entire day at Machu Picchu - the lost city of the Incas. They enjoyed sampling some of the Peruvian food, especially "Inca Cola."

Exchange Students

Haruna Inimoto arrived this year from Japan. Haruna got here last year on August 17 and will leave on July 5, 1986. When asked to describe American kids Haruna said, "they are American kids, a little crazy, but just American. Haruna misses all her friends, her family, and her school uniform. She finds it hard to get dressed in the morning with all the clothes to pick from. Some of her favorite foods are Chicago pizza, fried chicken, and Doritos, although she does miss sushi from Japan. She also enjoys aerobics, miniture golf and going to the dunes. Haruna was also involved in the H-F symphonic strings, symphonic orchestra, and the Chicago Youth Symphony down town for her great talent with violin. When she goes back to Japan she plans to go to Sophia University in Japan.

Is year old Jacobus Johannes Sutherland (Kobus) was the last exchange student this year. Kobus arrived on January 17th 1986 after a stop in New York. Kobus has also visited Wisconsin, Springfield, Michigan, and Washington D.C. Some sports Kobus enjoys in South Africa are: rugby, cricket, golf, squash, and target shooting. He was on the track team here at H-F. Kobus misses his own language, rugby, and his friends, but he really enjoys American food, TV, and the kids. When asked about H-F Kobus said the sporting facilities were great, he also likes the idea of wearing his own clothes, the choice of subjects you can take, and all the movies they show in class. Some of his favorite TV shows and musical performers are the Cosby Show, Yaz, Modern Talking, Jaluca, Depeche Mode, Talking Heads, and Phil Collins. When Kobus goes back to South Africa in January of "87", he plans to go to college and study in the engineering field.

For the last year Julie Billinghurst has had the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity of living as an exchange student in a foreign land. Julie Billinghurst, an 18 year old student from Australia, didn't find the move here to be too difficult. Julie says "people are basically the same although their cultures are different." She especially enjoyed all the extra attention she received due to her being an exchange student. She found our school system to be much easier than in Australia with her favorite class being humanities. Julie also played on an intramural softball team and went on the Eastern Colleges Tour. Julie would love to come back to the U.S.A. and work a few years after she finishes college. She plans to study law and economics. If she does come back she would like to live in either Chicago or New York City as she loves big cities.

Homewood Rotary also sponsored exchanges out of the country. Julie Carlson, one of last years exchange students went to Japan. Jim Patti went to Mexico. This year, Dee Brown spent the year in Brazil. Next year Rob Calhoon and Flo Speakman will also experience this great opportunity. Rob is going to Columbia and Flo is going to Finland.

Gallery One

This year's art show took on a new location. The current art rooms (F-I and F-3) were set up to display drawings, paintings, and sculptures by this year's art students. The show was open on Wednesday, April 30th for parents and community visitors. Thursday, May Ist, was set aside for students to visit. Kael Kirkpatrick's graphic design class did the space planning and set-up for the show. Faculty and students were impressed by the variety and quality of the art works displayed.

Operation Snowball 1985

We are a Community of Caring. We are bonded together by similar desires and comparable motivations. As individuals, our influence is likely to be as light and fragile as a single snowflake; Collectively, we have the force and power of an avalanche.

Fourth Row: Allan DaCorte, Carol Downs.

Operation Snowball is founded on the belief that given accurate information, every human being has the capacity to make sound decisions regarding his or her own life based on an understanding of one's self and one's motivations. It is an ongoing program about substance abuse prevention with an emphasis on teens helping teens.

Operation Snowball was founded in 1977 by a group of teens in cooperation with the Illinois Alcoholism and Drug Dependence Association. Operation Snowball has received national recognition by the office of the President and state recognition by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and the legislature.

In March of 1980 the Homewood-Flossmoor High School Board of Education and Parents Association sent five teenagers and two deans to the Region 2 Operation Snowball. Since that time H-F has sponsored four Operation Snowball weekends. A total of 560 students have participated in Operation Snowball and Illinois Teenage Institute events.

It is commendable that Homewood-Flossmoor High School is the first high school in the nation to sponsor its own Snowball.

Homecoming Homecoming Homecoming H

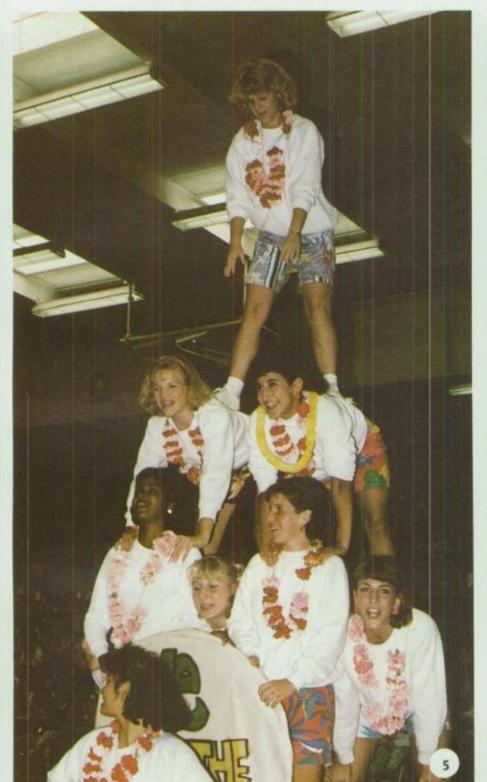

This year's Homecoming theme was "South Pacific". During Spirit Week students wore hats, college t-shirts, clashing clothes, Hawaiian attire and traditional red and white. Included in the lunch activities were hula, chewing gum, animal impressions and musical chairs contests. During the assembly on Friday, October II, the soccer team amazed everyone with their talent in egg weaving. As expected, this year's Senior class was pronounced the rowdiest in the Viking cheer led by our principal, Mr. Smith. Unfortunately both Viking football teams suffered losses to the Thornwood Thunderbirds. The Saturday night dance, decorated "Hawaiian style" was the highlight of Homecoming for many people. The crowds danced to the tunes of Network.

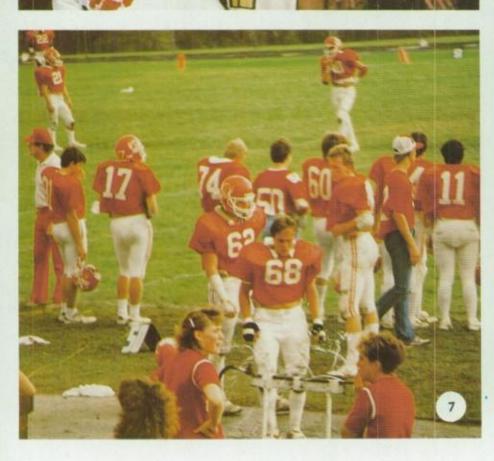

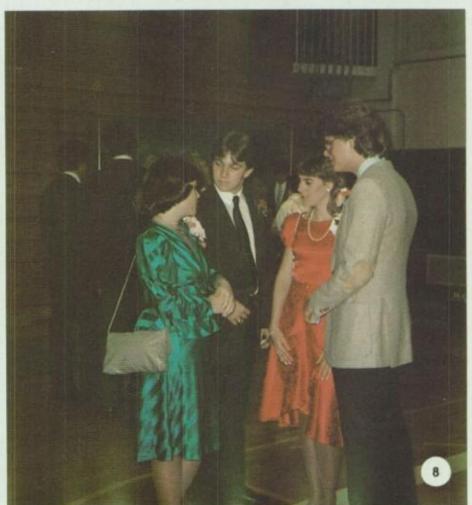

I. Sue Levy and Jim Walsh are one of the many couples who attended the Homecoming. 2. Tim Walton could swear it was pass interference. 3. Students dance to the popular tunes of Network. 4. Ken Cherry makes a cute Hawaiian girl at the Homecoming assembly. 5. After many days of preparation, the cheerleaders complete a successful Hawaiian pyramid. 6. The H-F Vikings have a new mascot for the Homecoming assembly. 7. The Varsity Viking football players get ready for the game against the Thunderbirds. 8. Tiffany Hurd, Tom Truax, Barb Dechant and Jim Morse decide which scene to use for their pictures.

The Homecoming court: Michelle Musselwhite, Jennifer Napoli, Karen Leland, Monica Pearson, and Kay Asaki. 6. Mike Marcus wonders where his date went. 7. Alissa Graham gives her feet a rest, while her date, Phil Davis, wishes he were dancing. 8. Mr. Smith and our mighty Viking lead the Viking Cheer. 9. Michelle Musselwhite and Bob Landowski share a homecoming kiss as Michelle is chosen Junior Class Representative. 10. Chameen Khan and Ann Marie Long, H-F Poms, dance their way to a "New Attitude" during the pep rally on Friday. II. Everyone enjoys halftime activities. 12. The girls field hockey team gives a yell to show their spirit during the Friday pep ralley.

"Animal House" was the theme selected for the 1986 Turnabout dance held February 22. Weekday activities included toga-day and favorite-sorority-or fraternity-sweatshirt-day. Pillars, Greek letters, and murals of fraternities and sororities, including Delta House, were the decorations used to achieve the Animal House theme. Jeff Fasel was crowned the 1986 Turnabout King at the assembly on Friday, February 21. The Freshman band, Live Wire, was pronounced the winner in the Battle of the Bands after beating Fortress. They were the back up band for All Night Newsboys at the dance.

This year's junior-senior prom, "One More Night," was held on Saturday, May 24, 1986 at the Chicago Marriott Hotel in Downtown Chicago. The dancing and fun lasted from 6:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. The cost of the tickets was $58.00 and included a top sirloin steak dinner for two. The formally dressed couples swayed to the music provided by "Johnny and the Shakers" and a video disc jockey. An excited Stephanie Grandy was chosen prom queen. The rest of the court included Janelle Carrier and Barb Oosterbaan as senior representatives. Chrissy Baffes and Eileen Haverty were selected as junior representatives.

The 1986 Yearbook Staff Says Goodbye!

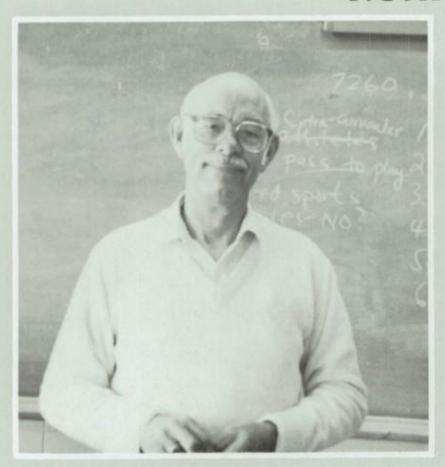

Retirement

Mrs. Connie Petraitis started at H-F in the Business Office in 1976. She then became the Nurse's secretary in August of 1977. Mrs. Petraitis called our parents and gave us Band-Aids for 8 and a half years until her retirement in December of 1985.

Mrs. Mary Weber (not pictured) worked in the Cafeteria from 1967 until her retirement in January 1986.

Mr. William Booth started at H-F in 1959 with the school's opening. From 1959 to 1967 Mr. Booth taught English and was the Voyager sponsor. From 1967 to 1976 he was the Director of English. Also from 1964 to 1972, he was Chairman of Publicity for the district. In 1976, Mr. Booth switched from English to become the Director of Student Services, which included guidance and Special Education. In 1979 Mr. Booth returned to the classroom to teach English and later some U.S. History classes. Mr. Booth is now retiring after 27 years at H-F and 34 years total teaching.

In the future, Mr. Booth plans to work with his English writing skills.
